

Biblical Metaphors
A Friend to Others Study Questions
John 15:13

1. How did Aaron and Hur encourage Moses during battle?

T

2. In what two ways can a friend go the second mile?

3. In what ways did Jonathan's friendship with David cost him?

4. What numerical value does the term "seventy times seven" represent?

5. Relate a time when someone encouraged you during a difficult time or task. What did they do that encouraged you, and how can you show similar encouragement to another?

6. Is there a current relationship you have that could benefit from your growth in longsuffering? Write down at least two ways you could exercise patience with this person.

7. Are any of your friends going through a difficult season and needing a friend's faithfulness? How could you remind your friend(s) of your commitment to them this week?

8. Friends carry a tremendous weight of influence on one another. How are you using the influence you carry to encourage your friends to love the Lord more and walk closer to Him? What could you do this week to use your influence for God?

Memory Verse
John 15:13